

Jennie Ashworth Taylor is a North Ogden native and a graduate of Weber High School. She holds a bachelors degree from BYU and a Master's of Education from Utah State. She is the Gold Star Widow of former North Ogden Mayor Brent Taylor and the mother of their seven children. Jennie is the Executive Director of the Major Brent Taylor Foundation and Utah's Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army. She has a passion for igniting patriotism through service and loves working with others on projects and events that bring people together. She is thrilled to be part of this year's Cherry Days celebration!