

Stef and Sean Casey are excited to be volunteering their passion and talent for sound systems with the community. They founded Zu Audio in 2000—sound system engineering and manufacturing has been their life's work. Stef leads the cable harness division, Sean heads R&D and engineering. They have been residents of North Ogden for the better part of three decades.